Description:

Buache edition of De L'Isle's attractive map of the southernmost part of Swabia, on the Swiss border near the Bodensee (Lake Constance).

The map shows the region in fine detail, with cities, towns, forests, rivers, and other geographical features all shown. The start of the Alps to the southeast of the map is just about visible. The German city of Konstanz is shown.

Guillaume de L'Isle was one of the leading French cartographers of the first part of the 18th century. Following his death, many of his copperplates were inherited and reissued by Phillipe Buache.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in outline.
