Description:

Finely detailed harbor plan of the Bay of Havana, with insets showing three sets of fortifications guarding the harbor, published by the Depot de la Marine under the direction of Nicholas Bellin.

The chart includes a detailed plan of the city and environs of the bay, soundings, anchorages, outlying settlements and a key showing approximately 25 locations, roads, islands, rivers and other details, along with a decorative compass rose.

The chart is embellished with beautiful modern hand coloring, which adds tremendously to its visual appeal.

One of the best large format maps of Havana from the 18th Century.
