Description:

Great poster advertising Antica production in South Tyrol, originally printed in 1885 and here reissued around 1970.

The poster shows the landscapes of South Tyrol in a series of mountain scenes before describing the region in Italian. Bottles of Antica, an Italian liquor infused with mountain herbs, are shown.

The website of the Autonomous Province of South Tyrol dates the poster to the period 1870-1880, consistent with what we know about the Trent publishing firm Arti Grafiche R. Manfrini.

Detailed Condition:

Several closed tears, just into image, repaired with tape on verso. Toning. Minor wrinkleing.
