

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

---

Chart of the St. George's Channel, the Bristol Channel and Part of the West Coast and Islands of Scotland Drawn from the recent Surveys of Captns. Beechey, Denham, Budge, Robinson, Frazer & Sheringham, R.N.

Stock#: 90072
Map Maker: Imray & Son
Date: 1853 (additions to 1855)
Place: London
Color: Uncolored
Condition: Good
Size: 76 x 39 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Colossal blueback chart, oriented with west at the top, showing the expanse of water between Britain and Ireland, including the coast of Wales, western England and Scotland, and eastern Ireland. The map was published by the prolific chartmakers James Imray & Son in London in 1853, this addition having been updated and issued in 1855.

The chart includes Padstow Bay, Milford Haven, Dublin Bay, Belfast Bay, Lough Larne, Carlingford Lough, Entrance to Lough Strangford, Campbelltown Harbour, the River Clyde, Greenock, Port Glasgow, Bumbarton, Liverpool Bay, Holyhead Bay, and illustrations of lighthouses and light ships.

The chart also features a detailed treatment of the Isle of Man, as well as Aran Isle and nearby Scottish islands.

Detailed Condition:

Backed on linen and blue paper. Some small holes, repaired splits, etc. Some surface soot. Some spots of staining.