Description:

One of the most detailed plans of Rome to appear in a townbook in the 17th Century. This incredible work by Blaeu & Mortier illustrates virtually every building, bridge and statute and monument within the cities walls in striking detail. The insignias of the 14 regions of Rome are shown at the bottom, along with two large ornate cartouches and a title cartouche. Blaeu's townplans are much rarer than the works of his contemporaries. A striking and crisply engraved example in near fine condition.
