Description:

Rare bird's-eye view of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1953, displaying key buildings, roads, and landmarks.

The map depicts The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's campus, with various buildings, athletic facilities, and paths and roads marked. Central to the map is the Kenan Stadium, recognized by its oval form. Adjacent to it, other recreational venues can be seen. Roads weave throughout the campus.

Memorial Hospital is shown at the top of the map.

The view is rare, this being the first time we have seen it.
