Description:

Scarce map of pair of maps Hungary, and adjoining regions, published by Rossi in 1683 and 1684 respectively.

The map extends east to the Transylvania Region, northeast to the Carpathian Mountains, southeast the Danube River and Southwest to the Saw River. In the north, the map covers most of Slovakia, including Bratislava and Leopoldov, and reaching Vienna on the Danube.

A line on the maps illustrates the place where Rossi intended that the 2 maps be cut and joined.
