Description:

Extremely rare regional map by Van Geelkercken, whose works are noted for their rarity and fine decorative qualities. This map is centered on the Rhein River and extend from the Brisich and Lintz to Arnhem. Luyck, Maastricht, Venlo and Nimmegen also appear on the right side of the map. Portraits of Rudolphus Imp and Leopoldus appear on the map, along Brandenberger and Nieuberuger. The coats of arms for Bergh, Marck, Gulick and Cleef are also appear. This example has some minor restorations and repaired tears, but is generally a very presentable example of this exceptional rarity. An essential map for regional collectors.
