Description:

Nice example of Sanson's map of the Persian Empire.

Nicholas Sanson (1600-1667) is considered the father of French cartography in its golden age from the mid-seventeenth century to the mid-eighteenth. Over the course of his career he produced over 300 maps. His influence is shown particularly with this map, as it would be taken up and re-issued by William Berry and Hubert Jaillot, among others.

Originally published by Sanson in about 1657, the map was re-issued by Zurner in 1679 and by Ribbuis in 1683, with the imprint of A. d. Winter Sculpsit in the lower right corner.
