Description:

Antique map of Alaska, with Sitka shown as the capital. The Aleutian Islands are on an inset map. At the bottom, an index enumerates districts, capes and points, islands, lakes, mountains, rivers, and towns. Juneau is the largest city, with a population of 1,253, just exceeding Sitka's population of 1,190. The salmon boomtown of Karluk, on Kodiak Island, has the territory's third-largest population.
