Description:

Extremely Rare 1641 Ortelius Map.

Regional map detailing the Duchy of Burgundy and the Free County of Burgundy, showing rivers, mountains, many cities, and towns. The duchy encompasses the area from Vezelay east to Ratte and from Châtillon south to Loisy, including Dijon, Beaune, and Avallon. The county covers from the Saone River east to the Jura mountains and Fontenoy south to Montfleur, with Besançon, Dole, and Poligny included.

Rarity

This (Van den Broecke 53) is the rarest of Ortelius' four maps (Van den Broecke 51, 52, 53, and 54) of Burgundy.

It first appears in the 1602 Spanish edition, and then in the 1618/12 Italian, and the 1609/12 Spanish (very few copies printed), and then the 1641, of which there were only 25 copies printed, according to Van Den Broecke.

In over 30 years of doing business, this is the first time we have handled this Ortelius atlas map.

Detailed Condition:

Spanish text on verso. Second state. Minor foxing.
