Description:

Nice example of this regional map, from the 1598 edition of Ortelius' Epitome, the only edition to include printed text below the map. Pietro Marchetti published for the Italian market this plagiarized version of the miniature Abraham Ortelius atlas first published in 1577, which was derived from the maps in Ortelius' Theatrum. The success of the original and plagiarized editions let to publication until the end of the 17th Century.
