Description:

Detailed engraved map of Arabia, Persia and neighboring regions issued by Henry Teesdale in London in 1840.

The map stretches from the Red Sea to Balochistan and Afghanistan and is centered on the Gulf.

The map includes excellent detail in the Arabian Peninsula, with dozens of towns along the Red Sea. In the Desert regions, a number of interesting place names which existed primarily in the 19th century are shown, along with places marked simple "well" are shown. Further east, on the Gulf, El Katif, Bahharein Island, and Taroot are named north of the Peral Bank, with a few early place names in the area of modern-day Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in outline. Engraving on 19th-century wove paper.
