(Timber Tract Surveying) Chelan National Forest Washington

Stock#: 97435
Map Maker: Forest Service U.S. Dept. of Agriculture
Date: 1922
Place: Washington, D.C.
Color: (See Description)
Condition: VG
Size: 23 x 24.5 inches
Price: $ 125.00

Description:

Survey map of Chelan National Forest, a year after Okanogan National Forest was transferred to it. In 1955, the name was reverted to Okanogan. Washington (now Mount Baker-Snoqualmie) and Colville National Forests are shown to the west and east, respectively.

This example shows the coverage of Yellow Pine, transitional coverage, and sub-alpine ecosystems. The owner seemed to think better of his survey and stopped part way through.

Detailed Condition:

Original contemporary hand-coloring in pencil, with legend in upper left in pencil. Minor wear in folds, including a few pinholes and one short split (upper left in Washington National Forest) in crossfolds.
