Description:

Nice example of this fine 4-sheet map of Ireland, based upon the most recent information and with extensive annotations.

Includes extensive 2 tables and a key map showing the location of Ireland within the British Isles.

Fine example of John Rocque's map of Ireland. Notes every town, hamlet, bishopric, country, forest, castle swam and road, along with offshore details, including the shoals in Georges Channel.

An elaborate title cartouche in the upper left quadrant shows the Irish Harp over two pensive bovines and a demurely positioned unclothed maiden.
