Description:

Antique map of Montana, showing many geographical and political features.

The newly established city of Kalispell (Kalispel), incorporated as a city in 1892, is mapped just northwest of Flathead Lake on the Great Northern Railroad. Just southeast is the town first incorporated in northwestern Montana, the raucous boomtown Demersville, its fall precipitated by its distance from the railroad and establishment of Kalispell.

Battle sites of the Nez Perce War and Great Sioux War are marked. Many tribal agencies are shown as well.
