Description:

A Triumphant Work of Pictorial Map Art

Gorgeous pictorial map of Manhattan and environs, created by Herbert C. Wyman for the New York World's Fair in 1939.

Wyman's map is truly a work of art, combining iconographic caricatures of major New York City landmarks with color and flair. From the Old Boston Post Road, Yankee Stadium, The Bluebell Tavern and Alexander Hamilton's house in the north to the oldest Church in Long Island, the Williamsburg Bridge and an image of the Battle of Long Island, this is a truly remarkable piece of work.
