Description:

A fine map of Switzerland and its 13 cantons prepared by William Lizars for his 1841 edition of Lizars' Edinburgh Geographical General Atlas... Nicely hand colored to distinguish the different cantons and areas of the region.

Fairly detailed depiction of the area with numerous roads, cities, and even a mountainous rail line illustrated. Major cities of the past and present are on the map, namely Zurich, Geneva, and Bern. Other notable locations are present too such as Verdun on the border between Switzerland and France or Mont Blanc right inside the depicted portion of the Kingdom of Sardinia.

A very nice depiction of Switzerland with ample detail and color.

Detailed Condition:

Offsetting where folded. Light foxing as pictured. Slight wear above neatlines.
