Description:

Finely detailed map of Tasmania, hand colored by counties, published in London by James Wyld.

The map shows Tasmania with only 11 counties.

The map is detailed with multiple notes scattered throughout so one could better use this map. Locations of reefs, sandy shoals, and shallow waters are noted at sea while the land has certain geographic distinctions noted like "dense forest" or "open plain" to describe some areas.

Many of the smaller islands around Tasmania are drawn, including the Furneaux Island Group. A small inset at the bottom left corner shows nearby Kings Island.
