Description:

Fine old color example of this rare early edition of Blaeu's map of France, which appeared in the earliest editions of his Atlas Appendix.

The map is the work of the master engraver Josua van den Ende. The map is enhanced by the inclusion of a large title cartouche in the lower left corner, sailing ships, a compass rose and the English royal coat-of-arms above it, plus the German royal coat-of-arms and a small explanation table to the right margin.

In later editions, the second Latin title would be changed to a French title.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand color.
