Description:

Fine example of JH Colton's map of North Carolina.

the map is hand-colored by counties, the map and includes a host of detail and shows roads, railroads, towns, villages, post offices, rivers, lakes, stations, and marshes. Early railroads, which would soon be of critical importance during the Civil War, are shown.

The map includes an inset map of Beaufort, with descriptions as to how to enter the harbor, as well as a decorative border. In all, this is a terrific map, from one of the most prolific American mapmakers of the mid-19th century.
