Description:

This 1777 map offers a detailed representation of Newfoundland, drawn from the works of Jacques Nicolas Bellin and published in Livorno, Italy, by Marco Coltellini. It was initially published in the Italian edition of Il Gazzettiere Americano, enhanced with elaborate cartouches and fine engraving, showcasing the cartographic excellence of the era.

Originating from Il Gazzettiere Americano, this map is part of a three-volume atlas that represents the Italian translation of The American Gazetteer, first published in London. This Italian rendition, enriched with annotations and additional maps, marked a significant milestone in the dissemination of geographic knowledge within Italy.

Detailed Condition:

Copperplate engraving on laid paper.
