Description:

Detailed map of the region, extending from the Appalachians and Eastern Tennessee and West Florida to Virginia and part of Chesapeake Bay. Highly detailed map of the region. Includes the Limit of King Charles ye II Granted to ye Present Proprietors of Carolina in 1663, the south bounds of Carolina (well into Florida), notes of Indian Battles fought by Col Barnwell in Bath County 1712 and Col Craven in Granville County in 1716. Ten Cherokee villages noted. Shows roads, towns, rivers, lakes, mountains, etc. A note traces the English claim to Carolina to Cabot's discoveries in 1498 sailing from Bristol at the charge of King Henry ye 7th, but without taking possession until King Charles II's time in 1663. A dark striking image and in full color.
