Description:

Striking map of Asia and the Northern parts of Australia, by JC Homann, one of the earliest of the Homann Heirs. The map shows Comagnie Land as a partial unknown island above Japan and Kamchatka. It also shows the straits between New Guinea and Australia in a quite tentative fashion, noting Dampier's Strait and a disembodied Carpenteria with no definite northern limit. Rich full color cartouche. Narrow left and right margins, but sufficient for framing.
